Theatre Royal Drury Lane Tour & Cream Tea

Guests will love exploring the history of Theatre Royal Drury Lane as they are taken on a journey through the centuries of this beloved theatre. They'll be immersed in the birthplace of the musical, modern pantomime, moving scenery, regular rehearsals and naturalistic acting, in this beautifully renovated theatre.

Nestled in the heart of Covent Garden, Theatre Royal Drury Lane has survived tragedy, fire, bankruptcy & even murder. Groups can embark on a magical journey through the theatrical history of the oldest theatre on the same site in the world.

They'll discover the origins of theatrical terms such as Crew, Props and Box Office, as expert actors entertain them with stories of stars, innovation, royal scandal and even murder. Who knows, they may even get to see one of Drury Lane's famous ghosts!

The tour of Theatre Royal Drury Lane lasts approximately 1 hour. Following the tour, guests will be seated in the theatre's Art Deco inspired bar and lounge, to feast on Lily Vanilli scones and luxury tea. This unforgettable experience celebrates the ceremony and pageantry of an exquisite Cream Tea. Surrounded by elegance from the moment they enter, the 'Cecil Beaton cocktail bar and lounge. Design and décor is inspired by Cecil's legendary My Fair Lady costume and the flamboyant & rebellious group of artists, writers & socialites surrounding him.
